5.5 Withholding. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this Agreement, the Manager may, in his reasonable discretion, withhold from any distribution of cash or property in-kind to any Member pursuant to this Agreement, the following:

- (b) any amounts due from such Member to the Company or the Manager or attributable to such Member pursuant to this Agreement to the extent not otherwise paid (including, without limitation, such Member's share of expenses relating to any Proceedings and Indemnification Obligations); provided, that Class B Members shall not be charged any expenses, including expenses relating to any Proceedings and Indemnification Obligations, except pursuant to Section 6.6(c).

5.6 Dissolution of Classes B and C. Upon the Company distributing and/or allocating all assets comprised of either Class B and Class C Membership Interests, such Class shall automatically terminate, without any action required by the Company and/or the Manager, and all Class B and/or Class C Membership Interests, as applicable, shall automatically revert back to the Company and be dissolved.

7.1 Maintenance of Books and Records. The Company will maintain books and records in such manner as is utilized in preparing the Company's federal information tax return in compliance with Section 6031 of the Code, and such other records as may be required in connection with the preparation and filing of the Company's required federal, state and local income tax returns or other tax returns or reports of foreign jurisdictions, including, without limitation, the records reflecting the Capital Accounts and adjustments specified in Section 4. All such books and records will at all times be made available at the principal office of the Company and will be open to the reasonable inspection and examination of the Members or their duly authorized representatives during normal business hours.

7.2 Federal, State and Local Income Tax Information. The Manager will use his commercially reasonable efforts to cause the Company to transmit to each Person who was a Member at any time during the fiscal year then ended (including any permitted assignee of a Member who so requests in writing) an Internal Revenue Service Schedule K-1 and such Company tax information as is legally required for the preparation by such Person of federal, state and local tax returns in accordance with any applicable laws, rules and regulations then prevailing. The Manager will use his discretion to obtain extensions for filing as needed. Each Member understands and agrees that the tax returns for the Company may be delayed so that it may be necessary for each Member to obtain extensions for the filing of their own tax returns. Such information will include a statement showing such Person's share of distributions, income, gain, loss, deductions and credits and other relevant fiscal items of the Company for such fiscal year. Promptly upon the request of any Member, the Manager will cause the Company to furnish such Member all United States federal, state and local income tax returns or information returns, if any, which the Company is required to file.

7.3. Tax Matters. [REDACTED] shall act as Tax Matters Member of the Company pursuant to IRC §6231(a)(7).

7.4 Custody. The Manager agrees that it shall store and maintain any private key associated with a TON wallet with the highest degree of care and security and that the Manager shall provide a copy of each such private key (the "Duplicate Keys") to the Manager's attorney or a reputable third party (the "Duplicate Keys Storage Provider"). The Duplicate Keys are to be used in the event that the Manager or the Manager's successor is unable to access the private keys held by the Manager. The Manager shall ensure that the Duplicate Keys Storage Provider uses the highest degree of care and security in storing and maintaining the Duplicate Keys.

8. Transfer of Interests; Substitute Members.

EXECUTION COPY*8.1 Withdrawals, Transfers.

- (a) No Member shall have any right to voluntarily withdraw from the Company.
- (b) No Member will Transfer the Member's Interest or any rights in the Interest, or permit any legal or beneficial interest in such Member itself to be Transferred, unless such Transfer is: (i) a Family Transfer carried out in accordance with Section 8.2 of this Agreement, or (ii) approved by the Manager in the Manager's sole and absolute discretion. All attempted Transfers in violation of the terms of this Agreement will be void ab initio.

8.2 Family Transfer. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, but subject to the considerations contemplated in Section 8.1, a Member, the estate of a deceased Member or attorney-in-fact or guardian of a mentally incompetent Member, may Transfer any or all of the Member's Interest to one or more Family Members of such Member (a "Family Transfer") provided that such Family Member is an Accredited Investor; however, such Family Member will not be admitted as a Member for purposes of political or voting power unless and until such Person is approved by the Manager and has executed and delivered an addendum to this Agreement in accordance with Section 8.3. In the event any such successor in interest is not approved as a Member or does not execute and deliver such addendum to this Agreement, such successor will only be entitled to the economic rights attributable to the Transferred interest as permitted hereunder:

8.3 Execution of this Agreement by Transferee. No assignee of all or any part of any Interest of a Member in the Company will be admitted to the Company as a substitute member (a "Substitute Member") unless and until:

- (a) the Manager, in his sole and absolute discretion, will have duly approved such admission,
- (b) the assignee has executed a counterpart of this Agreement (as modified or amended) and such other instruments as the Manager may reasonably deem necessary or appropriate to confirm the undertaking of the assignee to be bound by all the terms and provisions of this Agreement; and
- (c) the assignee has undertaken in writing to pay all expenses incurred by the Company in connection with such assignment and substitution.

Unless and until an assignee of Interests in the Company becomes a Substitute Member, such assignee will not be entitled to exercise any vote, consent or any other right or entitlement with respect to such Interests.

9. Resignation and Removal of the Manager.

9.1 Substitution of Manager. Without the consent of the Members, the Manager may substitute an Affiliate as a successor Manager. Upon the substitution of a successor Manager under this Section 9.1, the successor will succeed to all of the rights and obligations of the Manager and the prior Manager will be deemed to have withdrawn as the Manager. Except as required by applicable law, changes in the members, managers, directors, officers, employees or agents of the Manager will not require the consent of the Members and will not cause the dissolution of the Company.

EXECUTION COPY

9.2 Removal or Cessation of Manager. A Manager will cease to be a Manager of the Company: (i) if such Manager resigns or is dissolved; (ii) if such Manager becomes the subject party in an Event of Bankruptcy; (iii) upon the vote of a Required Interest of Members of each Class in the event of Misconduct by the Manager.

9.3 Successor Manager.

- (a) General. Upon the removal or resignation of a Manager under Section 9.2, the Members will appoint a new Manager with each Member having the number of votes equal to the Percentage Interests held by such Member. A new Manager will be the Person which receives the approval of Members holding 51% or more of the Percentage Interests. Any successor Manager appointed by the Members to replace a Manager pursuant to this Section 9.3 will, beginning on the effective date of such appointment, have the same rights and obligations under this Agreement as the replaced Manager would have had subsequent to such date if the replaced Manager had continued to act as Manager.
- (b) Timing. The designation of such Person as a successor Manager will occur, and for all purposes will be deemed to have occurred, on the effective date of the cessation of the prior Manager.

10. Duration and Termination of the Company.

10.1 Term. The existence of the Company will be deemed to have commenced on the date on which the Certificate of Formation were filed with the Delaware Secretary of State and will continue until terminated as follows:

10.1.1 The written determination of the Manager; or

10.1.2 The sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company.

10.2 Winding-Up. At the termination, the Company will be dissolved and wound-up. In connection with the dissolution and winding-up of the Company, the Manager or, if he votes to appoint a liquidator or other representative (or if the Manager has been removed under Section 9.2 and not timely replaced under Section 9.3, a liquidator or other representative selected by the Members) (the "Representative"), will proceed with the sale or liquidation of all of the assets of each Class of the Company (including, to the extent feasible, the conversion to cash or cash equivalents of its assets) and will apply and distribute the proceeds of such sale or liquidation to the Members of each such Class in the following order of priority, unless otherwise required by mandatory provisions of applicable law:

- (a) first, to pay (or make provision for payment of) all expenses of the liquidation in satisfaction of all obligations of the Company for such expenses of liquidation; provided, that such expenses shall neither apply to nor be deducted from Class B or Class C proceeds;
- (b) second, to pay (or to make provision for the payment of) all creditors of the Company (including Members who are creditors of the Company), in the order of priority provided by law or otherwise, in satisfaction of all debts, liabilities or obligations of the Company due such creditors and of such expenses of liquidation; provided, that such expenses shall neither apply to nor be deducted from Class B or Class C proceeds;

- (c) third, to the establishment of any reserve which the Manager or the Representative may deem reasonably necessary for any contingent or unforeseen liabilities or obligations of the Company (such reserve may be paid over by the Manager or the Representative to an escrow agent acceptable to the Manager or the Representative, to be held for disbursement in payment of any of the aforementioned liabilities and, at the end of such period as will be deemed advisable by the Manager or the Representative, for distribution of the balance in the manner provided in this Section 10.2); provided, that such reserves shall neither apply to nor be deducted from Class B or Class C proceeds; and
- (d) fourth, after the payment (or the provision for payment) of all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company in accordance with clauses (a) and (b) above and the establishment of the reserve required under clause (c) above, to the Members in accordance with Section 5.2.

10.3 Distributions in Cash or in Kind. Upon dissolution, the Manager or the Representative may at its discretion hire independent appraisers to appraise the fair market value of Company assets not sold or otherwise disposed of and allocate any unrealized gain or loss determined by such appraisal to the Members' respective Capital Accounts as though the properties in question had been sold on the date of distribution and, after giving effect to any such adjustment, distribute said assets in the manner set forth in Section 10.2. The cost of any such appraisers shall not be borne by the Class B or Class C Interests.

10.4 Time for Liquidation. A reasonable amount of time will be allowed for the orderly liquidation of the assets of the Company and the discharge of liabilities to creditors so as to enable the Manager or the Representative to minimize the losses attendant upon such liquidation.

10.5 Termination. Upon compliance with the foregoing distribution plan, the Manager or the Representative will execute, acknowledge and cause to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware Certificate of Dissolution (or other appropriate document) of the Company. The provisions of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect during the period of winding up and until the filing of such Certificate of Dissolution (or other appropriate document) of the Company with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware.

10.6 Costs and Expenses. The costs and expenses for terminating, dissolving and winding up the Company shall be payable by the Members other than the Members holding Class B or Class C Interests.

11. Amendments.

11.1 Amendments. Except as otherwise provided below, herein or by applicable law, this Agreement and all certificates, documents, instruments and other writings executed by the Members in connection herewith (including, without limitation, the Certificate of Formation) may be amended, from time to time, by the Manager to the extent the Manager shall determine such amendment shall be necessary, desirable, or appropriate in connection with the management or control of the Company and/or the conduct of its business and affairs. Such amendment may, by way of illustration and without limiting the scope of the foregoing in any respect, be made for the purposes of:

- (a) admitting additional or substituted Members into the Company pursuant to the terms of this Agreement;
- (b) clarifying any one or more of the provisions of this Agreement;

- (c) complying with, or satisfying the requirements of, the Code, the Treasury Regulations, any federal or state securities laws or regulations and/or any other law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, interpretation, decision, or order of, or issued, promulgated, or enacted by, any governmental authority or self-regulatory body, such as FINRA or a national securities exchange. Any such amendment may, in the sole discretion of the Manager, relate back to the date of this Agreement with such force and effect as if originally incorporated therein.

However, notwithstanding the foregoing:

- (i) any provision of this Agreement requiring the affirmative vote or consent of a specified percentage of Interests with respect to any action may be modified, amended, restated, or revoked only by the affirmative vote or consent of Members holding at least such specified percentage unless otherwise specified herein;
- (ii) no amendment of this Agreement and/or of any certificate(s), document(s), instrument(s) and/or other writing(s) executed by the Members in connection herewith (including, without limitation, the Certificate of Formation) that shall: (w) impose any liability on any Member for any debts, obligations or liabilities of the Company; (x) impose any obligation upon, or increase any obligation of, any Member to make additional Capital Contributions to the Company; or (y) except to the extent necessary to clarify a provision, provided that such clarification does not change the substance of the amended provision in the opinion of the Company's counsel, alter the allocation for tax purposes of any items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit with respect to any Member or Members or alter the manner of computing the distributions of any Member or Members, may be made without the consent of each of the Members who are adversely affected thereby; and
- (iii) no amendment of this Agreement and/or of any certificate(s), document(s), instrument(s) and/or other writing(s) executed by the Members in connection herewith (including, without limitation, the Certificate of Formation) that shall or may render any one or more of the Members liable, in their capacity as Members and/or Manager(s), for any or all of the debts, obligations and/or liabilities of the Company and/or of any of the other Members (whether arising in tort, contract, or otherwise) may be made without the consent of each of the Members adversely affected thereby.

EXECUTION COPY

11.2 Power of Attorney.

- (a) Each Member agrees to execute, acknowledge, swear to, deliver, file, record and publish such further certificates, instruments and documents, and do all such other acts and things as may be required by law, or as may, in the opinion of the Manager, be necessary or desirable to carry out the intents and purposes of this Agreement.
- (b) Each Member, whether a signatory hereto or a subsequently admitted Member, hereby irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Manager (including any successor Manager) the true and lawful attorney-in-fact of such Member, and empowers and authorizes such attorney-in-fact, in the name, place and stead of each Member, to execute, acknowledge, swear to and file, or have filed, the Certificate of Formation and any amendments thereto, and any other certificates, instruments and documents which may be required to be executed or filed under laws of any State or of the United States, or which the Manager shall deem advisable to execute or file, including without limitation all instruments which may be required to effectuate the formation, continuation, termination, distribution or liquidation of the Company and/or the sale of each Member's Interests.
- (c) It is expressly acknowledged by each Member that the foregoing power of attorney is coupled with an interest and shall survive any assignment by such Member of such Member Interest in the Company; provided, however, that if such Member shall assign all of his Member Interest in the Company and the assignee shall become a substituted Member in accordance with this Agreement, then such power of attorney shall survive such assignment only for the purpose of enabling the Manager to execute, acknowledge, swear to and file all instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate such substitution.

12. Investment/Operations Covenants.

12.1 The Company shall use reasonable best efforts not to engage in any activities which could cause the Company to be engaged in a trade or business any income of which would be treated by any foreign Member (or any foreign partner or member of a Member) as income effectively connected with a United States trade or business under sections 871(a) or 881(a) of the Code.

12.2 The Company will not invest in certain assets if the ownership of such assets would cause the Company to be treated as engaged in a trade or business any income from which would be treated by any foreign Member (or any foreign partner or member of a Member) as income effectively connected with a United States trade or business under sections 871(a) or 881(a) of the Code.

12.3 The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that all of its gross income is from dividends, interest, and capital gains and losses from the disposition of property, and rents and royalties, but only such rents and royalties as are excluded, pursuant to sections 512(b)(2) and (3) of the Code in calculating unrelated business taxable income to ensure that (a) the Company will not constitute a "business enterprise" for purposes of the excess business holdings provisions of section 4943 of the Code. The Company shall use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that the Company not enter into any transaction that would constitute participation by the Company or any Member in a "prohibited transaction" under section 4975 of the Code or in an "excess benefit transaction" under section 4958 of the Code. In no event shall this Section 12.3 be interpreted as preventing (or limiting in any respect) the Manager or the Company from participating in those activities that are customarily associated with the acquisition, holding of capital appreciation, and sale or distribution by a professionally managed investment fund of portfolio company securities, including taking an active role in founding or serving on the boards of directors of portfolio companies.

12.4 The Company will use its reasonable best efforts to conduct the affairs of the Company so as to avoid having the Company treated as engaged in a trade or business within the United States for purposes of sections 875, 882, 884, and 1446 of the Code, so as to avoid any Member (or any partner or member of a Member) realizing gain or loss treated as effectively connected with a U.S. trade or business under section 897 of the Code and so as to avoid "effectively connected income" within the meaning of section 864 of the Code. In no event shall this Section 12.4 be interpreted as preventing (or limiting in any respect) the Manager or the Company from participating in those activities that are customarily associated with the acquisition, holding of capital appreciation, and sale or distribution by a professionally managed investment fund of portfolio company securities, including taking an active role in founding or serving on the boards of directors of portfolio companies.

In furtherance (but not limitation) of the preceding sentence, to the extent necessary to comply with FINRA rules (as determined by the Manager in his reasonable discretion) only those Members that have established through written representations satisfactory to the Manager that they do not fall within the proscription of such rules with regard to any specific new issue Securities shall have a beneficial interest in such new issue securities through their interest in the Company.
